

Genoa PTO Minutes
Oct. 13, 2008 Allen Elementary

Meeting called to order 6:33pm

1. Levy Info: Denny Mock presentation of rendering. Levy down from 5.2 mills to 2.4.

1.9 mills for building of school

.7 mills for renovation of current High School and restroom/ locker room for stadium

.5 mills permanent improvement for middle school and new elementary

= 2.4 mills

$200,000 a year savings in operations costs if buildings all on one campus that is equal to 1.2 mills.

Sewer system at Allen may become EPA issue later. It would be at our expense to tie into sewer system.

Levy cost is $73.55 per year on $100,000 home

THIS IS OUR LAST CHANCE!

About 450 absentee ballots sent out. Projecting a 90% voter turnout.

Door-to -door campaign Oct 26th. Public Forum Oct. 29th. Pep rally October 30th?

Village council supports this project.

If passed Allen will be knocked down. Brunner softball fields will go to village. Brunner building may be sold to Genoa Care Center if they don't buy it, it will be sold to Village for $1.00 and proceeds will be split in half between village and school district if ever sold

2. Grandparents breakfast: Gretchen Vargo chairperson.

October 22 7:30-8:30. Using Tim Horton's again. Getting donut prices for 20 dozen muffins, 100 dozen donuts and 10/40count TimBits. Milk ordered from cafeteria may do the same with OJ instead of McDonald's orange drink. 6:45 volunteers to arrive. Brunner-table in the hall .Allen-use cafeteria line as usual.

3. Accounts: Kathy Bench

Checking $1376.62

Accumulator Plus $7431.63

4. Book Fair: Laura Meinke

October 20-24th 8:30-4:00 7:30am the day of Grandparents breakfast.
2 cashiers one at each door at Allen.
Volunteers needed.

5. Market Day: Rebecca Eli
Largest in over year. Made over $600.00

6. Kalahari& Great Wolf: Laura Meinke
October 23rd & 24th Day passes $24.00 if have 10 or more people paid in advance.
No money made by us.

7. Brunner Library remodel: Art donation made my Miss Petro of her time, brushes, and paint.
Voted on and approved to give $150.00 to Miss Petro to replace her supplies.

Meeting Adjourned 7:11pm